SALVATION AND A JOB.

alt Lake Pastor Will Establish Employment Agency. From the Salt Lake Herald-Republican,

An employment bureau conducted in church and by the pastor! This is the latest departure in the field of religious work in Salt Lake and, if the plans of its originator carry through successfully, a fully equipped bureau will be in operation in one of the leading houses of worship in the city before the end of this week The idea originated with the Rev. Elmer I. Goshen, pastor of the First Congregational Church. And, with this minister, to conceive a worthy idea is to immediately act upon it. So he has plans already almost completed for the establishment and operation of his

He proposes to establish headquarters in the Congregational Church Building, and will have the office open from 9 a, m, to 5 p. m. It is his purpose, as announced to his congregation at the regular services, to keep some one at the church during these hours, and provide them with every facility possible for bringing job seekers in touch with those who need help and find employes

The pastor feels that conditions exsting in connection with many employment agencies now operating leave a field open for such a bureau as he proposes to install, and it is his desire and hope that the church bureau may grow into an institution that will eventually be taken over by the city and operated as a municipal bureau.
